Pastor's Article

May means the end of the school year approaches, and I know two students who are excited for the reprieve of summer break but who are even more excited about how they have learned and grown this semester. Allyson Pryor and Lisa Diana, our two seminarians, have done an outstanding job in their contextual learning here at Christ Lutheran, and we have benefited from their ministry in our midst!

Allyson's preaching and teaching inspired and engaged us. Her passion for Bonhoeffer and for Texas Lutheranism struck a few chords with you, and we had wonderful turnout at these classes. Throughout the spring, we have seen Allyson grow in her preaching skills with each sermon she gives. It's been a wonderful reprieve for me to have such a willing and able student to help with the pastoral load of weekly preaching and teaching.

Lisa has done a tremendous job as well. She encouraged each of us to consider how we might grow in our participation in CLC's many service opportunities. She remains at the helm of our work with our Haven for Hope family, partnering with them closely to make sure that they are not alone in their journey to overcome poverty. Lisa recently developed a survey about our outreach ministries and service opportunities, which will soon be made available. I encourage all of you to take this survey as we seek to hone in on our mission and outreach goals as a congregation that we might better impact lives in need in our community and our world.

This brief update is just a small taste of all that Lisa and Allyson are doing for us and with us. Be sure to bend their ears for a moment some Sunday to ask them more about their contextual learning. We are blessed to have them, and I, for one, am incredibly grateful for the many ways they have contributed to our ministries this spring.

Faith University:

Sunday Mornings at 9:15 a.m.

On April 23, Pastor Leslie began teaching a three-part series on the Book of Romans. The final installment of this class is May 7. Considered by most scholars to be St. Paul's masterwork, Romans presents a captivating theological vision. Written to address issues confronting Jewish and Gentile Christians in Rome, Paul hoped to unify these two groups by illustrating that, spiritually speaking, they stood on equal footing. We all fall short of God's will for our lives, and our redemption lies securely in God, not in ourselves. Over the years, Romans has been used to deny the superiority of one group over another. Our own dear Martin Luther rediscovered in Romans the joys of grace, justification, and faith, which ignited the Reformation. Its enchanting pages converted St. Augustine. John Wesley began a little movement called Methodism after reading Luther's Preface to the Romans, and Karl Barth's commentary on the book would redefine theology in the 20th century. So, there are just a few ideas and a small amount of history to cover in these three Sundays! Join Pastor Leslie as we tackle this fascinating book written by the remarkable Paul.

On May 14, please join us for the Constitutional Forum in Fellowship Hall during the Sunday school hour. See page 3 for more information.

On May 21, we hope you'll join us for a fascinating report on the Kenya Mission Trip to visit Ngong Road Ministries. See page 5 for more information.

Sunday School for Parents!

On Sundays at 9:15 a.m. we invite all of our parents to head over to Primrose House after dropping off their youngsters at Sunday school. There you will find a cozy and welcoming space and time for conversation with other parents of youngsters and elementary aged children. A discussion guide will be provided that encourages parents to consider current events, how they impact our faith, and how our faith impacts our response. Many thanks to our leaders this month!

May 7 – Joe Diana will lead.

May 14 – Adam Braaten will lead.

May 21 – Sarah Loyd will lead

Synod Assembly

Synod Assembly will be held May 5-7 this year in San Antonio at the Omni Colonnade. The theme of the Assembly is “Formed and Reformed for Mission,” and Andrew Steele will be keynote speaker. Andrew has served as the Director for ELCA Global Church Sponsorship since April of 2015. In this capacity, he oversees the advancement efforts for ELCA Missionaries, Young Adults in Global Mission volunteers, Global Ministry projects, and the International Women Leaders Initiative, which is also where our Synod Assembly offering will go this year. Besides being treated to this engaging presenter, we will conduct the annual business of the synod.

Voting members, both clergy and lay, will gather from all across our synod to represent their congregations in making decisions about the issues facing the larger church. We are grateful to Allyson Pryor for agreeing to serve as one of our lay voting members at Synod Assembly. Of course, Pastor Leslie will be there as well. If you would like to learn more about what issues will be discussed and voted on at Synod Assembly, please visit the Synod's website at www.swtsynod.org.

Constitutional Changes Forum, Sunday, May 14, Fellowship Hall, 9:15 a.m.

You may remember that during last year's Annual Meeting we looked at proposed changes to update our constitution to bring it into alignment with the ELCA's Model Constitution. At this year's Annual Meeting, on June 11, we will vote on these changes. To prepare for that vote, we will hold a Forum on Sunday, May 14, during the education hour. It's important to point out that none of these changes will affect how our church is organized and run. We will still have the same council and leadership structures in place. The updates to our constitution are mostly semantic and an ordering of topics. In a sense, we are really just migrating our constitution from one format to another. You are probably wondering why we have to do this at all. Well, we are required by the ELCA to make this change, and the reason is a good one. The ELCA has spent significant resources looking at best language practices for these congregational constitutions. Therefore, utilizing the model helps us avoid liability issues as a church and enables us to move forward employing the best language possible to articulate who we are as a community of faith. Many thanks to our Constitution Team: Laura O'Donnell, Bob Logan, Blossom Stobb, Jeff Jowers, Becky Richard, Don Kurtti, Bud Halstead, and Pastor Leslie for their work to make the necessary revisions and present the proposed changes. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to ask one of them or to contact a Parish Council representative as well.

CLC Book Club

We meet on May 2 to discuss A Man Called Ove by Fredrik Backman. The book cover states "You'll laugh, you'll cry, and you'll feel new sympathy for the curmudgeons in your life." It is a great feel good book. We'll meet at The Robbins' home, 6002 Winterhaven Drive in Windcrest. If the weather permits we'll be out on the porch. Come with your comments, and we'll have a nice evening.

For the June book, Penny McDonald has come up with a winner! It's Pancakes in Paris: Living the American Dream in Paris by Craig Carlson. It's a true story. The writing is fresh and humorous. A book to engage you.

Jambo (Swahili for Hello)

On Sunday, May 21, at 9:15 a.m., in Fellowship Hall, Julia Gates and Caroline Biggs will share their experience from the Friends of Ngong Road adventure in Nairobi, Kenya this past March. They will present beautiful photos and stories of the children who are sponsored, their families, and their homes as well as the schools they visited. See if they were able to capture (photograph) the “Big Five” while on safari! Learn more about the ministry of Friends of Ngong Road and how you can get involved and make a difference in a child’s life. Handicrafts from the mothers/caregivers of the children who are sponsored will be offered for sale after the presentation. The sale of these handicrafts provides income to the women who care for these children.

Chrysalis Ministries: Volunteers Needed!

Chrysalis Ministries, one of the local non-profits that your benevolence dollars support, has a hefty mission: to facilitate the personal, emotional and spiritual transformation of incarcerated individuals, those formerly incarcerated, and their family members. Approximately 15-20% of individuals who've committed crimes have serious mental health issues and 70-75% need some degree of mental health care. These problems are usually not diagnosed and are not addressed by our jails and prisons. Chrysalis brings a faith-based ministry to these folks through programs that include Healthy Relationships, Theft Addiction, 12-Step Substance Abuse, and Anger Management.

The small, dedicated staff relies heavily on volunteers. Many of their volunteers work in the chaplaincy program – a critical point of entry for people who have suffered in ways we cannot comprehend and in turn have caused suffering through their crimes. Most do not have a high school diploma, live in poverty, lack a positive support system, and have limited understanding of their moral and ethical responsibilities. They are lost, and Chrysalis Ministries helps them find their way.

They need volunteers and would love to hear from you. Christ Lutheran supports Chrysalis through our benevolence dollars – a gift of $2,000 each year. We are connected to this ministry in another way as well. In April, Lisa Diana spearheaded an Easter Basket drive to help the children of incarcerated parents, and you brought baskets and goodies to help in that mission. Thanks to your generosity, Lisa was able to deliver 25 cheerful baskets and money for shoes to Chrysalis Ministries.

Companionate Ministry

(Formerly Haven for Hope Project)

Brenda and her children have come a long way since they spent a few months at Haven for Hope in an effort to redirect their lives. We've been referring to our ministry with Brenda as our "H4H Project." But this is a misnomer. She has transcended homelessness and is working hard on her new journey ... so we're changing our name to "Companionate Ministry" to better describe that we are her companions on this journey of hope.

We continue to pray for Brenda and her family and to offer spiritual, social, and financial support. Lisa Diana engaged Brenda and her boyfriend, Bobby, in a Bible study recently. Mary Lynn and Bob Logan spent an afternoon at the park with two of Brenda's adorable children and reported that they are smart, affectionate, happy, and courteous.

Many of you have helped by making contributions to the Companionate Ministry (formerly H4H) fund. You've brought diapers, paper towels, toilet paper, canned goods, recipes, clothing for the children, and more. Our committee filled Easter baskets for the children and contributed an array of delicious dishes to make their Easter dinner festive. And a few CLC members helped Brenda's oldest daughter celebrate her birthday in a local park.

Employment is a continuing need. Brenda needs work and wants to work, but she cannot commit to full-time employment because of the demands of raising four small children. She needs housekeeping jobs. If you're interested, please call Lisa Diana at 210-822-3394.

Our fund to assist her, which was seeded by a grant from Thrivent Choice Dollars, is dwindling. She needs to work to support her family, and we so appreciate your prayers on her behalf as well as your contributions to this fund, your help with her children, your willingness to employ her, and anything else you might be able to do.
