Humility

WE ARE A COMMUNITY OF FAITH THAT WELCOMES

All are welcome at Christ Lutheran Church. We emphasize grace, forgiveness, and the reality that God is love. The teachings and example of Jesus call us to love one another and to be an inclusive and affirming community for people of every culture, race, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, relationship status, family makeup, and spiritual background. No matter what challenges you're facing – physical, mental, spiritual, economic, emotional, moral, or otherwise – we invite you to experience God's grace with us. There is a place for you here.

GATHERING

PRELUDE

Air from "Water Music" - Handel

WELCOME

The congregation is invited to stand as able.

PRAYER FOR HUMILITY

O Jesus, meek and humble of heart,
Hear us.

From the desire of being esteemed and extolled,
Deliver us, O Jesus.

From the desire of being honored and praised,
Deliver us, O Jesus.

From the desire of being preferred over others,
Deliver us, O Jesus.

From the fear of being humiliated and despised,
Deliver us, O Jesus.

From the fear of suffering rebukes,
Deliver us, O Jesus.

From the fear of being forgotten or ridiculed,
Deliver us, O Jesus.

That others may be loved and esteemed,
Jesus, grant us the grace to desire it.

That others may be chosen and praised,
Jesus, grant us the grace to desire it.

That others may be preferred and lifted up,
Jesus, grant us the grace to desire it.

O Jesus, help us to love God and neighbor before ourselves. Help us to know and reflect that all human beings bear your divine image. Give us the gift of your grace that we might receive your forgiveness and share it with others as Jesus would want us to do. Amen.

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. And also with you.

KYRIE

(At this time we invite you to write down on the provided slips of paper one moment you received or offered the gift of humility. If you desire, bring your paper forward and drop it in the well of kindness, located at the front of the sanctuary. Our prayer throughout this season is that our small acts of kindness would well up into a massive wave of justice, love, and compassion for our neighbors and for the sake of the whole world.)

Refrain

Ky-ri-e e-lei-son, on our world and on our way.

Ky-ri-e e-lei-son, ev-'ry day.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. Creator God, we ask you to come close and remind us of our belovedness as your children, for we are feeling distant. Open our eyes to the beauty and pain we all contain, and invite us to “do unto others” in ways that build up your kingdom on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

The congregation may be seated.

HYMN OF THE DAY

Lord, Whose Love in Humble Service

ELW #712

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The congregation is invited to kneel as able.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

We pray for those in need, within our own community and throughout the world. We give thanks to God for the many blessings bestowed upon us. Our petitions end with "Hear us, O God," and the congregation responds: "your mercy is great."

The congregation is invited to stand as able.

PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And also with you.

The congregation may be seated.

MEAL

OFFERTORY ANTHEM (10:30 a.m.) Amazing Grace - arr. John Coates, Jr
Sanctuary Choir

OFFERING

Christ Lutheran designates 20% of your Sunday offerings to our benevolence partners who make a direct impact on the lives of people in our world who need it most. See page two for more information on giving virtually from your phone or go to clcab.org.

The congregation is invited to stand as able.

OFFERTORY HYMN What Does the Lord Require of You

What does the Lord re-quire of you? What does the Lord re-quire of you? To seek 10
jus-tice and love kind-ness and walk hum-bly with your God.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Let us pray together. O God, blessed are you, for you are the source of every gift within creation. By these gifts and with our lives, help us to serve our neighbor and all in need, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING & EICCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Indeed, we give thanks to you as we gather around your table to remember what true relationship means. All are invited to this Table of Faith. You unleashed your creative power, and a world blossomed. You bestowed upon every living thing life and breath, color and movement, dignity and purpose.

Your son broke bread with those whose worldview did not mirror his. Your son broke bread with those whose experience and traditions were sometimes not only different, but opposed, to his. No matter how many battles we wage within and between ourselves and against you, your promise, vision, and gifts of peace and abundance continue.

And so we lift up our voices in celebration of you!

Holy, holy, holy are you!

We join all the prophets and saints!

Heaven and earth are full of your glory!

We join the parade of justice!

Blessed are they who come in the name of the Lord!

We add our cries and exclamations!

Hosanna in the highest!

Holy are you and blessed is your son, Jesus. To those who were imprisoned by status, law, illness, poverty, gender, age, and disease, he said, “your belief has set you free. You are a child of God.” He invited disciples, friends, and strangers alike to his table.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Jesus told us to remember:

You are one at this table, the table of grace.

For Christ has died, Christ has risen, and Christ comes again in this meal we eat together.

Holy Spirit, transform this meal and transform this body so that we might be free to love without condition, invite without hesitation, go without reservation, and proclaim your hope to all the world! Amen!

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us;

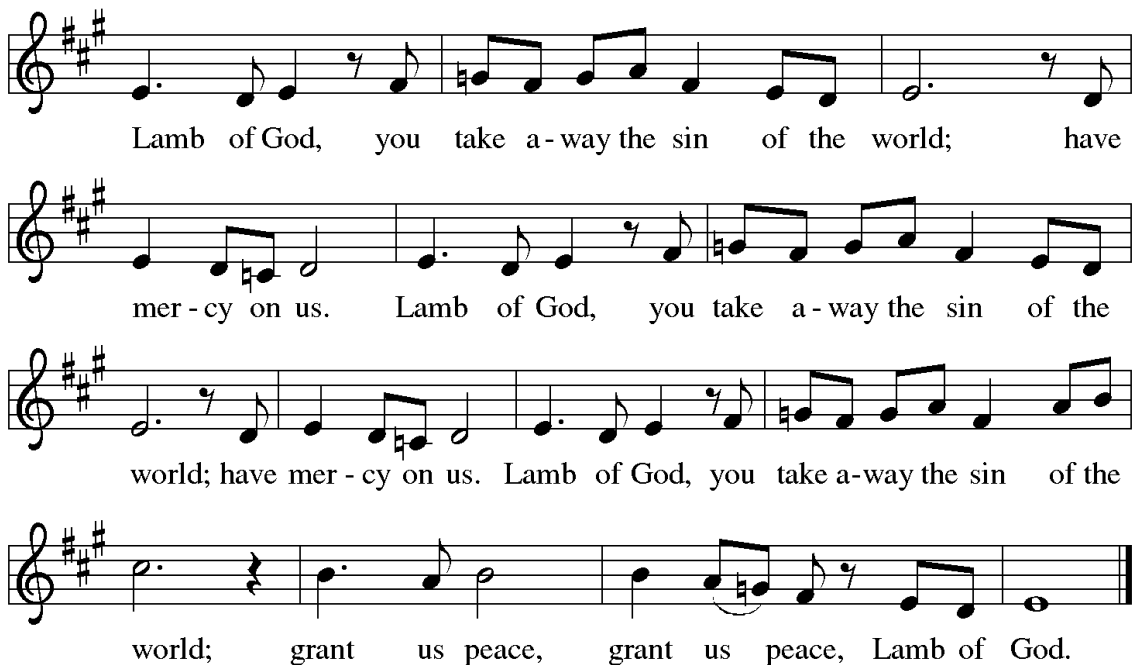

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The congregation may be seated.

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace, Lamb of God.

DISTRIBUTION

Two thousand years ago Jesus ate with sinners and those whom others scorned. He still does. None of us is worthy, except by God's grace. No matter what you have done or what your present condition, Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin, and who seek to live in peace with one another.

The gathered faithful have a choice to commune at the front of the sanctuary by intinction or in their seats with individual communion packets available at the entrance to the sanctuary. With intinction, the bread is placed in your hand for you to dip in the wine. Anyone who is unable to come forward may indicate to an usher that you wish to receive communion from a minister where you are seated. Gluten-free wafers are found on the small table next to the usher stand for anyone who needs them.

COMMUNION (10:30 a.m.) Da Pacem Domine - Goetze
Sanctuary Choir

COMMUNION HYMN O Christ, What Can It Mean for Us ELW #431

The congregation is invited to stand as able.

POST-COMMUNION BLESSING

Now may the body and blood of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, strengthen you and keep you in his grace. Amen.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Let us pray together. Holy God, you have welcomed us to this meal and fed us with dignity at your table. Send us now to welcome others and to be at peace with one another, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENDING

BLESSING

May the Holy One show you the way to do unto others with kindness.

May the Christ whose light is the center of all-that-is ground you in the assurance that no one is outside of love.

May the spirit show forth through you in extraordinary acts you never imagined you had the power to achieve.

And may you know the peace that surpasses all understanding,
especially when it is difficult to understand. Amen.

SENDING HYMN

Come Down, O Love Divine

“AMAZING GRACE” IN SEPTEMBER

The hymn, “Amazing Grace” may be considered the theme song of Christendom. Based on the subject of redemption despite sin, it is most appropriate for every Christian denomination. Its creation is well known, popular and inspirational: John Newton (1725 – 1807), its author, became the captain of a slave – transporting ship. A terrible storm battered his ship so severely, that he called out to God for mercy. This moment immediately led to his spiritual conversion, as he left the slave trade and became an ordained minister. He soon composed “Amazing Grace” in 1772 and published it in 1779.

The hymn tune to “Amazing Grace” has lived a more checkered career. While today in the United States, we sing it to the tune, “New Britain” (you can find the hymn tune name to any of our hymns by looking in the lower right-hand corner of the page in the hymnal), I count 20 different tunes sung to this hymn in the past 225 years. In the late 18th century, it was sung to a particular tune in Northern states and in the early 19th century, a different shaped note version found in Methodist and Baptist hymnals in the American South.

During the month of September, from the 8th to the 29th, the Sanctuary Choir will present a separate arrangement of the hymn somewhere in the Sunday service: two versions of the “New Britain” tune, a gospel version, the “Northern” version and the Golden Gate Gospel Quartet version sung to “The House of the Rising Sun” by the 1960s rock band, The Animals. We hope to see you in September.

TLU SUNDAY

SPECIAL GUEST - DR. DEBBIE COTTRELL, TLU PRESIDENT

Next Sunday, September 29

Calling all Bulldogs! We will welcome Dr. Debbie Cottrell, President of Texas Lutheran University since 2019, to both worship services and our adult education hour, Faith University. In a Temple Talk during each worship service, Dr. Cottrell will share current updates on Texas Lutheran and her gratitude for the partnership between TLU and Christ Lutheran in promoting Lutheran values and Lutheran higher education. During Faith University, all adults and high school-aged youth are invited to hear more from Dr. Cottrell about what uniquely equips TLU to educate the young people of today and how TLU's larger vision fits within a broader perspective on faith-based higher education in our country. We are honored by Dr. Cottrell's visit and look forward to showing our Bulldog pride on September 29.

MEAL KITS FOR PLAZA DE PAZ

Sunday, October 27, 9:30 a.m., Fellowship Hall

The Plaza de Paz Respite Center for migrants is in desperate need of shelf-stable, individually wrapped meal kits. These kits are useful as a backup when fresh food resources are unavailable. Even better, they are easy to pack for travel. The Center needs around 300 kits a month, so Christ Lutheran is undertaking the challenge to provide a month's worth of kits this fall.

In September and October, we will be collecting items for the kits. You can stop by the CrossWay and visit our donation display. There you will find paper butterflies you can take, detailing a group of items we will need for the kit. Don't forget to sign the registration sheet so we can track who is giving what and make certain all items are covered. Please return the items by Sunday, October 20th.

The following Sunday, October 27, during education hour, we will have an all-congregation service project to pack these kits in Fellowship Hall. This will be a fun and faith-filled intergenerational service opportunity, where we can be witnesses of compassion and grace. Please join us! For more information, you can contact Deacon Lisa Diana or the church office.

Lutheran World Relief School Kits

Lutheran World Relief School Kits contain essential supplies to help children – and in some cases, adults – continue learning in the face of serious obstacles.

Please consider donating the necessary items on the list below and drop them off in the area labeled "Lutheran World Relief School Supplies" off the CrossWay by September 30.

Contact Lucy Mathesen with any questions.

- 4 70-sheet notebooks of wide-or college-ruled paper, 8x10.5"; no loose leaf paper
- 1 30 cm ruler, or ruler with cm on one side and inches on the other
- 1 pencil sharpener
- 1 pair of blunt scissors
- 5 unsharpened #2 pencils w/erasers; secure together w/a rubber band
- 5 black or blue ballpoint pens (no gel ink); secure together w/a rubber band
- 1 box of 16 or 24 crayons
- 1 2 1/2" eraser
